Public Reports

Public report documents contains data which will be published in full by WGEA on the Data Explorer. They should, with public report documents, be taken to your CEO or equivalent for review, approval and sign off and must be shared in accordance with the Notification and Access requirements under the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012.

The following three documents make up your Public Report:

- Questionnaire – Public Report
- Workplace Profile – Public Report
- Workforce Statistics – Public Report

Public reports are used for:

- Review, approval and sign-off of the submission by your CEO or equivalent
- Complying with the Notification and Access requirements outlined below
- Keeping an internal record of what was submitted to WGEA for a particular year

Review, approval and sign-off:

The following documents must be reviewed by the CEO or equivalent of each organisation covered in this submission. More information found here.

- Questionnaire – Confidential Report
- Questionnaire – Public Report
- Workplace Profile - Confidential Report
- Workplace Profile – Public Report
- Workforce Statistics – Public Report

Notification and Access requirements

To comply, an employer must do the following as soon as reasonably practicable:

- Inform its employees and members or shareholders that it has lodged its report with the Agency and advise how the public data may be accessed
- Provide access to the public data to employees and members or shareholders
- Inform employee organisations with members in its workplace that the report has been lodged

#Workplace Overview

Workplace Overview - Policies & Strategies

* 1.1 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies in place that support gender equality in the workplace?

This question asks whether your organisation has 'policies' and/or 'strategies' in place that support gender equality in the workplace and what the policies and/or strategies include. These areas are considered key to achieving gender diversity in the composition of your workforce. If you do not have a policy and/or strategy in place, you will have the opportunity to indicate why.

Yes

Strategy

1.1a Do the formal policies and/or formal strategies include any of the following?

Recruitment; Training and development; Talent identification/identification of high potentials; Gender and other aspects of diversity

Provide details:

* 1.2 Does your organisation have any targets to address gender equality in your workplace?

A target is an achievable, time-framed goal that an organisation can set to focus its efforts. A gender balance target is a goal for a specific group of people.

No

Workplace Overview - Governing Bodies

1.4 Identify your organisation/s' governing body or bodies

Date Created: 23-04-2024

Governing bodies are the group of people who formulate policy and direct the affairs of an institution in partnership with the managers. The core role of a governing body is the governance of an organisation. Governing bodies:

- include voluntary boards of not-for-profit organisations
- are not a diversity council or committee
- are not a global diversity and inclusion team.

Some organisations have common types of governing bodies. For:

- private or publicly listed companies – the governing body is one or more directors or a board of directors
- trusts – the governing body is the trustee
- partnerships – the governing body will be all or some partners (if they are elected)
- religious structures – the governing body is a canonical advisor, bishop or archbishop
- any other structure – the governing body is the management committee.

If you share a governing body with your parent organisation, then your governing body is the same as your parent's

You are required to provide details of each organisation's governing body. A governing body is defined as the one that has primary responsibility for the organisation's governance. As such, you must only report one governing body for each organisation covered in this report. Please note:

- You must tick the organisation/s this governing body relates to.
- If there are multiple organisations covered in this report you must tick all that relate to this particular governing body.
- If this governing body does not cover all organisations, you should add another governing body after saving this one.
- If you have already ticked an organisation in another governing body in this report, you must not tick it again below.

Organisation: Qube Holdings Limited

*A. To your knowledge, is this governing body also reported in a different submission group for this year's Gender Equality Reporting?

No

*B. What is the name of your governing body?

Qube Holdings Limited

*C. What type of governing body does this organisation have?

The type of governing body should be the one that has primary responsibility for the governance of each organisation ticked above.

#Action on gender equality

Action on Gender Equality - Pay Equity and Gender Pay Gap

Gender Pay Equity is when women and men receive equal pay for work of the same or similar value, however, it is not just about ensuring women and men performing the same role are paid the same but also about ensuring women and men performing different work of equal and comparable value are paid equitably. This is a legal requirement in Australia.

The gender pay gap is not to be confused with gender pay equity. The gender pay gap is the difference in average or median earnings between women and men and is usually a consequence of disadvantages employees face in the workplace. Gender pay gaps are also not a direct comparison of like roles.

Gender pay gaps are a useful way to monitor the different earning capacities of women and men across organisations, industries, and the workforce as a whole..

Employers need to be actively working to understand and address their pay equity and gender pay gaps. The first step in improving your organisation's pay equality and gender pay gap is to conduct your own pay gap analysis and understand what's driving any differentials

Date Created: 23-04-2024

*2.1 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies on equal remuneration (pay equity and the gender pay gap) between women and men?

This question focuses on the policies and/or strategies your organisation has in place related to equal remuneration (pay equity and the gender pay gap) between women and men. If you do not have policies and/or strategies in place, you will have the opportunity to indicate why. The policies or strategies may be stand alone and/or contained within another strategy/policy.

Yes

Strategy

*2.1a Do the formal policies and/or formal strategies include any of the following?

To close the gender pay gap

*2.2 Have you analysed your payroll to determine if there are any remuneration gaps between women and men (e.g. conducted a gender pay gap analysis)?

This question focuses on the actions your organisation has taken in relation to gender remuneration. Specifically, it asks if and when you have conducted a remuneration gap analysis and if so, whether you took any actions as a result. If you have not taken any action, you will have the opportunity to indicate why.

No

Other

Provide details: Project has commenced and is being further refined. A by-level pay gap analysis within the same or similar employee categories is the initial approach.

Action on Gender Equality - Employee Consultation

*2.4 Have you consulted with employees on issues concerning gender equality in your workplace during the reporting period?

Date Created: 23-04-2024

Employee consultation is a formalised way to collect information about your employees' views on the workplace, what is working well and what could be improved. This question asks if you have consulted your employees about gender equality issues in the workplace during the reporting period.

Examples of issues can include:

- parental leave entitlements and related processes, like keep-in-touch and return-to-work programs
- flexible working arrangements
- gender pay equity
- representation of women in management
- recruitment of women in non-traditional areas
- sexual harassment or discrimination.

Yes

Provide further details on the employee consultation process.

*2.4a How did you consult employees?

Exit interviews

*2.4b Who did you consult?

Other

Other: Exit interviews with those that left the organisation at their initiative

*2.5 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies in place to ensure employees are consulted and have input on issues concerning gender equality in the workplace?

Yes

Strategy

*2.6 Did your organisation/s share last year's public report/s with employees and shareholders?

It is a requirement within the WGE Act for the relevant employer to:

- make public reports accessible to employees and shareholders
- inform employee organisations about the opportunity to comment
- inform employee organisations of lodgement of public report.

Only select 'Not applicable' if your organisation/s did not submit a report in the previous reporting period.

Yes

*2.7 Have you shared previous Executive Summary and Industry Benchmark report with the governing body?

It is a requirement within the WGE Act for the CEO to share your Executive Summary and Industry Benchmark report.

Only select 'Not applicable' if you did not receive an Executive Summary and Industry Benchmark from the Agency last year.

Yes

#Flexible Work

Flexible Work - Support for flexible working arrangements

3.1 Do you have a formal policy and/or formal strategy on flexible working arrangements?

This section focuses on the flexible work arrangements available in your organisation. If you have a formal policy and/or formal strategy on flexible work arrangements, it asks you to specify what this includes. It also asks whether specific flexible working options are available to managers and non-managers in your workplace, and whether these differ for women and men.

- A flexible work arrangement is an agreement between a workplace and an employee to change the standard working arrangement to better accommodate an employee's commitments out of work.
- Flexible working arrangements usually encompass changes to the hours, pattern and location of work.
- If flexible working arrangements are not available to your employees, you will have the opportunity to indicate why.

Yes
Strategy

*3.1a Do the formal policies and/or formal strategies include any of the following?

*3.2 Do you offer any of the following flexible working options to MANAGERS and/or NON MANAGERS in your workplace?

#Employee Support

Employee support - Paid parental leave

Parental leave policies are designed to support and protect working parents around the time of childbirth or adoption of a child and when children are young. This section focuses on whether employer-funded paid parental leave is available to carers in your organisation (in addition to government-funded parental leave), and if it is, which employees have access to it and how much leave is available.

Some workplaces have developed parental leave policies that no longer use the primary/secondary carer definition and provide equal entitlements to any eligible employee.

Equally shared parental leave policies offer the same type, length and conditions to employees of all genders, who require parental leave, with no distinction between primary and secondary carers.

- If your organisation offers this - you should answer this question with 'yes, we offer employer-funded parental leave to all genders without using the primary/secondary carer definitions.

A primary carer is the person who most meets the child's need, including feeding, dressing, bathing and otherwise supervising the child.

A secondary carer is generally the current partner of the primary carer, the other legal parent of the child or the current partner of the other legal parent of the child.

- If your organisation provides parental leave based on this/these definition/s – you should answer this question with 'yes, we offer employer funded parental leave (using the primary/secondary carer definitions)'. If your organisation specifically provides maternity leave and/or paternity leave, you should also answer 'yes, we offer employer funded parental leave (using the primary/secondary carer definitions)'.

Through the government's paid parental leave (PPL) scheme, eligible employees receive up to 18 weeks' pay at the national minimum wage. This paid parental leave is not the equivalent to employer-funded paid parental leave.

*4.1 Do you provide employer-funded paid parental leave in addition to any government-funded parental leave scheme?

If you do not offer any employer-funded parental leave (in addition to any government funded parental leave scheme) – you should answer 'no, we do not offer employer funded parental leave'

Yes, we offer employer funded parental leave using the primary/secondary carer definition

4.1.2 Do you provide employer funded paid primary carers leave in addition to any government funded parental leave scheme?

Yes

A 'primary carer' is the member of a couple or single carer, regardless of gender, identified as having greater responsibility for the day-to-day care of a child.

*4.1.2.a. Please indicate whether your employer-funded paid primary leave for primary carers is available to:

All, regardless of gender

*4.1.2b Please indicate whether your employer-funded paid

primary carers leave covers:

*4.1.2c How do you pay employer funded paid primary carers leave?

Paying the employee's full salary

*4.1.2d Do you pay superannuation contribution while they are on parental leave?

Yes, on employer funded primary carers leave; Yes, on government funded primary carers leave

*4.1.2e How many weeks (minimum) of employer funded paid primary carers leave is provided?

- If you offer employer-funded paid parental leave to all carers regardless of the primary/secondary definition, you must report the minimum number of weeks you provide.
- If you offer different packages to certain groups of employees or based on service time, industry or worksite, your minimum would be across all options available to all carers. If you do use the primary/secondary definition, please go back and correct your answer for question 4.1.2 of this section.
- If you enter a high number of weeks (more than 52), you may be required to reconfirm your data to ensure accuracy.

*4.1.2.f Who has access to this type of employer-funded paid primary carers leave?

Permanent employees; Contract/fixed term employees

*4.1.2.g Do you require primary carers to work for the organisation for a certain amount of time (a qualifying period) before they can access employer funded primary carers leave?

Yes

How long is the qualifying period (in months)?

12

*4.1.2.h Do you require primary carers to take employer funded paid parental leave within a certain time period after the birth, adoption, surrogacy and/or stillbirth?

Yes

Within 12 months

*4.1.3 Do you provide employer funded paid secondary carers leave in addition to any government funded parental leave scheme?

Yes

Please indicate how employer funded paid parental leave is provided to the secondary carers.

*4.1.3a Please indicate whether your employer-funded paid secondary carers leave is available to:

All, regardless of gender

*4.1.3b Please indicate whether your employer-funded paid secondary carers leave covers:

Birth; Adoption; Surrogacy; Stillbirth

*4.1.3c How do you pay employer funded paid secondary carers leave?

Paying the employee's full salary

*4.1.3d Do you pay superannuation contribution to your secondary carers while they are on secondary carers leave?

Yes, on employer funded parental leave; Yes, on government funded parental leave

*4.1.3e How many weeks (minimum) of employer funded secondary carers leave is provided?

Date Created: 23-04-2024

- If you offer employer-funded paid parental leave to all carers regardless of the primary/secondary definition, you must report the minimum number of weeks you provide.
- If you offer different packages to certain groups of employees or based on service time, industry or worksite, your minimum would be across all options available to all carers. If you do use the primary/secondary definition, please go back and correct your answer for question 26 of this section.
- If you enter a high number of weeks (more than 52), you may be required to reconfirm your data to ensure accuracy.

*4.1.3.f Who has access to this type of employer-funded paid secondary-carers leave?

Permanent employees;Contract/fixed term employees

*4.1.3.g Do you require secondary carers to work for the organisation for a certain amount of time (a qualifying period) before they can access employer funded secondary carers leave?

Yes

How long is the qualifying period (in months)? 12

*4.1.3.h Do you require secondary carers to take employer funded paid parental leave within a certain time period after the birth, adoption, surrogacy and/or stillbirth?

Yes

Within 12 months

4.2 Does your organisation have an opt out approach to parental leave? (Employees who do not wish to take their full parental leave entitlement must discuss this with their Manager)

No

Employee support - Support for carers

*4.4 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies to support employees with family or caring responsibilities?

This question asks if you have standalone formal policies or strategies on working arrangements to support employees with family or caring responsibilities, or if you include this item in another formal policy or strategy.

- You can answer No and give details on the free-text box if you only provide informal arrangements to support employees with family or caring responsibilities.

A carer refers to an employee's role as the parent (biological, step, adoptive or foster) or guardian of a child, or carer of a child, parent, spouse or domestic partner, close relative, or other dependent. If measures to support carers are not available to your employees, you will have the opportunity to indicate why.

#Harm Prevention

Harm Prevention - Sexual harassment, harassment on the grounds of sex or discrimination

Key Definitions

Sexual harassment is when a person makes an unwelcome sexual advance, or an unwelcome request for sexual favours, to the person harassed; or engages in other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature in relation to the person harassed; in circumstances in which a reasonable person, having regard to all the circumstances, would have anticipated the possibility that the person harassed would be offended, humiliated or intimidated.

Harassment on the ground of sex is when a person engages in unwelcome conduct of a demeaning nature of another person by reason of their sex or a characteristic that generally relates to or is attributed to their sex. This also takes into account circumstances relating to an individual's sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, intersex status, marital or relationship status.

Discrimination happens when a person is treated less favourably, in circumstances that are the same or are not materially different, than a person of a different sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or on the ground of the person's intersex status, marital or relationship status, pregnancy or potential pregnancy, breastfeeding, or family responsibilities.

Legal obligations

Date Created: 23-04-2024

The Sex Discrimination Act 1984 makes it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the basis of gender identity, intersex status, sexual orientation, marital or relationship status, family responsibilities, pregnancy or potential pregnancy or breastfeeding. It also prohibits sexual harassment in many areas of public life including all work-related activity. The Anti-Discrimination and Human Rights Legislation Amendment (Respect at Work) Act 2022 created a positive duty requiring employers to implement measures to prevent sexual harassment, hostile work environments and victimisation. This is in addition to the duty of care employers have under WHS legislation to provide a safe workplace and to eliminate and minimise identified risks to health and safety.

Under the Sex Discrimination Act 1984 it is also unlawful for a person to subject another person to a workplace environment that is hostile on the ground of sex.

For more information, refer to Safework Australia or your State or Territory Work Health and Safety regulatory body. More information about harassment on the ground of sex or discrimination can also be found at the Australian Human Rights Commission website.

Disclaimer

This section is not an exhaustive description of, or advice regarding the legal obligations attaching to employers. Employers are responsible for understanding the scope of rights and obligations attaching to employees and the workplace.

*5.1 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies on the prevention of and appropriate response to sexual harassment, harassment on the ground of sex or discrimination?

The provisions in a 'policy' and/or 'strategy' for prevention and management of sexual harassment is important for setting workplace culture and achieving a safe, respectful and inclusive workplace. Policies/Strategies alone will not prevent harassment and discrimination; however, they can help to set clear expectations, particularly about behaviours at the workplace and during work-related activities.

Yes

Policy

*5.1a Do the formal policies and/or formal strategies include any of the following?

A statement on the positive duty of the employer to provide a safe workplace, free of sexual harassment; Expectations of manager and non-manager training on respectful workplace conduct and sexual harassment; Process to disclose, investigate and manage any sexual harassment; The frequency and nature of reporting to the governing body and management on sexual harassment; Expectations of safety, respect and inclusive conduct in recruitment materials, contracts and performance management; Guidelines for human resources or other designated responding staff on confidentiality and privacy; Process for development and review of the policy, including consultation with employees, unions or industry groups

Provide Details:

*5.2 (If you have answered no at question 5.1, please go to question 5.3.) Have the policies and/or strategies been reviewed and approved in the reporting period by the Governing Body and CEO (or equivalent)?

	Yes	No
By the Governing Body	Yes	No
By the CEO (or equivalent)	Yes	No

*5.3 Do you provide training on the prevention of sexual harassment, harassment on the ground of sex or discrimination to the following groups?

Cohort	At induction	At promotion	Annually	Multiple times per year
All managers	Yes	No	No	No
All non-managers	Yes	No	No	No
The governing body	Yes	No	No	No

*5.3a Does the training program delivered to the above groups include any of the following?

The respectful workplace conduct and behaviours expected of workers and leaders; Different forms of inappropriate workplace behaviour (e.g. sexual harassment, harassment on the grounds of sex and discrimination) and its impact; The drivers and contributing factors of sexual harassment; Bystander training; Options for reporting occurrences of sexual harassment as well as the risk of sexual harassment occurring; Information on worker rights, external authorities and relevant legislation relating to workplace sexual harassment

5.4 Does the governing body and CEO or equivalent explicitly communicate their expectations on safety, respectful and inclusive workplace conduct? If yes, when?

Culture is set and role modelled by leaders – the tone from the top of the organisation should promote an organisation that is respectful, safe and inclusive, and should be backed up by action.

Examples of communication could include:

- Regular agenda items at meetings between the governing body and CEO or equivalent
- Statements from the governing body or CEO in annual reports
- Statements at events or prior to large events (such as work Christmas parties or conferences)
- Regular email communication to staff

Members of the governing body

No

Chief Executive Officer or equivalent

Yes

The CEO or equivalent has made explicit the expectation of line managers in communicating on respectful workplace behaviour

*5.5 Does your workplace health and safety risk management process include any of the following?

Sexual harassment is a workplace hazard that is known to cause psychological and physical harm. Managing the risks of sexual harassment should be part of your approach to work health and safety. For more information about sexual harassment as a work health and safety risk, please refer to Safework Australia's Guide for preventing workplace sexual harassment

Control measures to eliminate or minimise the identified drivers and risks for sexual harassment so far as reasonably practicable; Consultation on sexual harassment risks and mitigation with staff and other relevant stakeholders (e.g. people you share a premises with)

Provide Details:

*5.5a What actions/responses have been put in place as part of your workplace sexual harassment risk management process?

Date Created: 23-04-2024

Make workplace adjustments; Change or develop new control measures; Undertake and act on a culture audit of the relevant business or division; Train people managers in prevention of sexual harassment

*5.6 From the following list, what do you provide to support workers involved in and affected by sexual harassment?

Confidential external counselling (E.g. EAP); Information provided to all workers on external support services available; Union/worker representative support throughout the disclosure process and response; Reasonable adjustments to work conditions

*5.7 From the following list, what options does your organisation have for workers who wish to disclose or raise concerns about incidents relating to sexual harassment or similar misconduct?

Disclosure refers to a formal or informal complaint of workplace sexual harassment

Process for disclosure to human resources or other designated responding staff; Process for disclosure to confidential/ethics hotline or similar; Process for disclosure to union/worker representative; Process to disclose after their employment has concluded; Process to disclose anonymously; Process for workers to identify and disclose potential risks of sexual harassment, without a specific incident occurring

Provide Details:

*5.8 Does your organisation collect data on sexual harassment in your workplace, if yes, what do you collect?

Yes

Number of formal disclosures or complaints made in a year; Number of informal disclosures or complaints made in a year; Outcomes of investigations

*5.9 Does your organisation report on sexual harassment to the governing body and management (CEO, HOB, KMP) and how frequently?

Sexual harassment, harassment on the ground of sex or discrimination should be monitored by governing bodies and management. Reports may include prevalence risks, and nature of workplace sexual harassment; organisational action taken to prevent and respond to sexual harassment; outcomes and effectiveness of responses, including consequences for perpetrators; and analysis of trends and data in the workplace and broader industry.

Head of Business (HOB):

- the CEO or equivalent of a subsidiary organisation within your corporate group
- an employee who has strategic control and direction over a substantial part of the business, but whose responsibilities do not extend across an entire corporate group, such as the head of a brand within a group.

Key Management Personnel (KMP):

- in line with Australian Accounting Standards Board AASB124, KMPs have the authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of an entity, directly or indirectly. This includes any director (executive or otherwise) of that entity.
- a defining feature of KMPs is their influence is at the entity level. KMPs are likely to direct the strategic function of their section and are often functional heads, such as head of operations or head of finance. They represent at least one of the major functions of an organisation and participate in organisation-wide decisions.
- for corporate groups, KMPs will have authority and responsibility across the entire structure.

Cohort	Regularly / At every meeting	Multiple times per year	Annually

How many days of unpaid domestic violence leave?

Access to unpaid domestic violence leave

Yes

Is it unlimited?

Yes

*5.14 Voluntary response: Have any of your employees taken paid family and domestic violence leave in the last 12 months?

This information is sought to inform Government about utilisation of family and domestic violence leave in the context of the new entitlement to 10-days paid family and domestic violence leave as a National Employment Standard under the Fair Work Act 2009. Deidentified data will be shared for this purpose and may also be released together with WGEA's public data release at aggregate level (meaning across the whole WGEA dataset and not at the organisational level).
